

When we fly the Flag

Flying the Union Flag and the College Flag

The Union Flag is flown from Newnham on:

- Remembrance Day
- Remembrance Sunday

The College Flag is flown from Newnham on:

- All Congregation days, including Honorary Degrees
- General Admission to Degrees
- Vice-Chancellor's Address and Election of the Proctors
- St George's Day
- Accession of HM The King
- Birthday of HM The King
- Official Birthday of HM The King
- Birthday of HRH The Prince of Wales
- Birthday of HM The Queen
- College celebrations, such as:
 - Alumni Weekend
 - Commemoration

The College Flag is flown at half-mast on the death of:

- The Principal
- Former Principal
- Senior Member
- Former Senior Members (if local, or notable, or particularly remembered)
- Current Members of Staff (at the Vice-Principal's discretion)
- Undergraduate or graduate in residence
- Occasions of public mourning

Flying other Flags

On certain specific days of the year other flags are flown, as agreed by Governing Body and with the appropriate planning permission. These include the Pan-African, Rainbow and Trans flags.

November 2025