

When we fly the Flag

Flying the Union Flag and the College Flag

The Union Flag is flown from Newnham on:

- Accession of HM The Queen
- Birthday of HM The Queen
- St George's Day
- Birthday of HRH The Duke of Edinburgh
- Official Birthday of HM The Queen
- Birthday of HRH The Prince of Wales

The College Flag is flown from Newnham on:

- All Congregation days, including Honorary Degrees
- General Admission to Degrees
- Vice-Chancellor's Address and Election of the Proctors
- College celebrations at the Vice-Principal's discretion, such as:
 - The Matriculation Feast (Freshers' Feast)
 - The Graduate Feast
 - Alumni Weekend
 - Commemoration
 - Public Lectures

The College Flag is flown at half-mast on the death of:

- The Principal
- Former Principal
- Senior Member
- Former Senior Members (if local, or notable, or particularly remembered)
- Current Members of Staff (at the Vice-Principal's discretion)
- Undergraduate or graduate in residence
- Occasions of public mourning

September 2008