

When we fly the Flag

Flying the Union Flag and the College Flag

The Union Flag is flown from Newnham flagpole on:

- Remembrance Day
- Remembrance Day Sunday

The College Flag is flown from Newnham flagpole on:

- Accession of HM The King
- Birthday of HM The King
- Official Birthday of HM The King
- Birthday of HRH The Prince of Wales
- Birthday of HM The Queen Consort
- St George's Day
- All Congregation days, including Honorary Degrees
- All Scarlet Days
- General Admission to Degrees
- Vice-Chancellor's Address and Election of the Proctors
- College celebrations at the Vice-Principal's discretion, such as:
 - Alumni Weekend
 - Commemoration
 - The Matriculation Feast (Freshers' Feast)
 - The Postgraduate Feast
 - Public Lectures

The College Flag is flown at half-mast on the death of:

- The Principal
- Former Principal
- Senior Member
- Former Senior Members (if local, or notable, or particularly remembered)
- Current Members of Staff (at the Vice-Principal's discretion)
- Undergraduate or postgraduate in residence
- Occasions of public mourning

February 2023